

Compensation Programs Inc Privacy Policy

If you have any questions about the following information please contact Compensation Programs, Inc at service@ComProins.com or 800-729-5290.

Compensation Programs, Inc. (ComPro) is a health insurance brokerage serving employers, individuals, and financial professionals in acquiring health insurance. ComPro provides health insurance quotes, processes health insurance applications, and provides service for health insurance policy issues.

ComPro may collect Personally Identifiable Information (PII) that you provide us through our interactions with you in order to provide you the services we offer, including health insurance quotes and applications. Personally Identifiable Information (PII) is information that identifies you, is generally not available to the public, and may include information about your family as well as you personally.

These requests for PII are voluntary. You are not obligated to provide us PII that we request, however, if you do not provide us with certain information we may not be able to respond to your requests, process your applications or otherwise conduct the business contemplated between us.

For all insurance services we may collect personal contact information including name, telephone number, mailing address, email address, gender, birthday, marital status, and personal health history.

PII that is collected or created by ComPro is used for the sole purpose of providing you with the services that we offer. This information will only be disclosed to our employees, when necessary to complete their job functions, those individuals and entities designated by you through our release form, those legally authorized to act on your behalf, and for those Authorized Functions outlined in our agreements and contracts with the Federally-Facilitated Healthcare Exchanges and other insurance carriers.
