2023 Medicare coordination of benefits mailing reminder

Beginning in April, the Medicare annual coordination of benefits (COB) validation letters were mailed to individual and group members. The COB validation letters are mailed to individual and group members who the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) shows as having other drug coverage. If the information in the letter is correct, the member takes no action. If the information is incorrect, the member must contact MedicareBlue Rx/Group MedicareBlue Rx customer service.

If you receive questions about the COB mailing, please advise members to contact the plan at the phone number listed in their letter.
