Medicare highlights from UnitedHealthcare™

This week's feature

Coming soon! Get certified to sell 2024 UnitedHealthcare Medicare plans

Mark your calendars! UnitedHealthcare 2024 Certifications will launch earlier than previous years! Starting mid-June you can get certified to sell 2024 UnitedHealthcare Medicare plans. Plus, we've enhanced the experience to help you complete your assessments faster. The study guide will be available on June 1 so you can begin reviewing the content prior to certification launch!

New this year!

The annual Conflict of Interest attestation is moving out of certifications to an online process based on your Party ID anniversary date. Trainings and additional information will be available to help you learn about the new attestation and disclosure process.

Watch your email for more information coming soon!

Medicare Advantage news

Updated Agent Guide available on Jarvis

The updated Agent Guide is now available in the Knowledge Center. Look for updates in red and be sure to discard previous versions.

The Agent Guide is a comprehensive document that outlines UnitedHealthcare's rules, policies and procedures. It provides you with resources on how to conduct business in an efficient and compliant manner. This guide contains answers to agents' most frequently asked questions when it comes to doing business with UnitedHealthcare.
